

Hypothesis

Conclusion

Observation

Inference

Quantitative

Qualitative

Directions: Cut out the definitions below and paste them next to the correct vocabulary word.

Observations that describe the qualities or characteristics of something

Observations that describe the qualities or characteristics of something

A summary based on evidence or facts

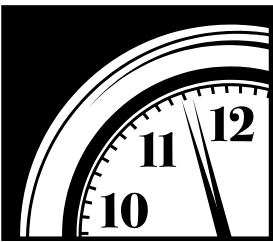

A summary based on evidence or facts

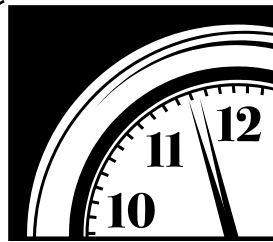

An educated guess based on observations, can be tested

An educated guess based on observations, can be tested

Observation based on data, can be expressed using numbers, such as length, mass, temperature, distance, & time

Observation based on data, can be expressed using numbers, such as length, mass, temperature, distance, & time

A logical conclusion based on observations, each person has their own perspective

A logical conclusion based on observations, each person has their own perspective

The process of obtaining information by using your senses

The process of obtaining information by using your senses